TEXTIT IS A CROWD FUNDED PROJECT

#2 Crypto in the world

A screenshot of a Google search results page for the query 'crowdfunded crypto projects'. The Google logo is in the top left. The search bar contains the text 'crowdfunded crypto projects'. Below the search bar, the title 'Crowdfunded crypto projects' is followed by a paragraph: 'Crowdfunding has emerged as a significant force in the world of cryptocurrency, offering a way to fund projects and ideas through collective contributions. This method leverages blockchain technology, enabling individuals to invest in startups and initiatives by purchasing tokens or other digital assets.' Below this, it says 'Here are some examples of notable crowd-funded crypto projects:'. Then, under the heading 'Top projects by funds raised', there is a bulleted list of seven projects: EOS, Filecoin, Tezos, Ethereum, The DAO, and Polkadot. A red arrow points from the text '#2 Crypto in the world' to the 'Ethereum' entry in this list. At the bottom of the screenshot, there is a small line of text: 'No incomes are guaranteed or implied. Training purposes only.'

Crowdfunded crypto projects

Crowdfunding has emerged as a significant force in the world of cryptocurrency, offering a way to fund projects and ideas through collective contributions. This method leverages blockchain technology, enabling individuals to invest in startups and initiatives by purchasing tokens or other digital assets.

Here are some examples of notable crowd-funded crypto projects:

Top projects by funds raised

- EOS: A blockchain operating system that raised $4.1 billion through its crowdfunding campaign on the Ethereum platform.
- Filecoin: A decentralized data storage application that raised $257 million.
- Tezos: A self-governing blockchain project that raised $232 million.
- Ethereum: A pioneering crowdfunding success story, Ethereum raised over $18 million in Bitcoin during its ICO in 2014, paving the way for decentralized applications.
- The DAO: A decentralized autonomous organization that raised $160 million in Ether (ETH).
- Polkadot: A multi-chain framework that aims to connect different blockchains, raised over $140 million in its ICO.
